Draft Mauritius Declaration

Corrigendum

1. Paragraph 4 should read as follows:

   4. Reaffirm our commitment to support the efforts of small island developing States for their sustainable development through the further full and effective implementation of the Barbados Programme of Action, including through the achievement of the internationally agreed development goals, including those contained in the Millennium Declaration;

2. Add a new paragraph after paragraph 7, which should read as follows:

   7 bis. Commit ourselves to fully implement the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and to further promote international cooperation on climate change;

3. Paragraph 12 should read as follows:

   12. Also recognize that particular attention should be given to building resilience in small island developing States, including through technology transfer and development, capacity-building and human resource development;

4. Paragraph 13 should read as follows:

   13. Further recognize that international trade is important for building resilience and the sustainable development of small island developing States, and therefore call upon the international institutions, including financial institutions, to pay appropriate attention to the structural disadvantages and vulnerabilities of small island developing States;

5. Paragraph 15 should read as follows:

   15. Recognize that women and youth as well as the civil society are playing an important role in promoting sustainable development activities in small island developing States, and encourage them in their efforts;
